Popis produktu

The Jungle Way designer glass bottle with semi-precious stones is not only a great reminder of the essential role hydration plays in a healthy lifestyle, but it also allows each of us to reduce single-use plastic waste by choosing tap water. In 2019 alone, more than 480 billion single-use plastic bottles were sold worldwide. Using this bottle also helps you save 99% compared to the cost of bottled water.

The double bottom of the bottle contains a mix of semi-precious stones – rose quartz, amethyst, clear quartz, and onyx – which influence the water through vibrations, even though they do not physically touch it.

- Rose quartz makes the water detoxifying and improves blood circulation in tissues.
- Clear quartz strengthens immunity, enhances sexual desire, and charges the water with positive energy.
- Amethyst makes the water vessel-cleansing and beneficial for mental health and metabolism.
- Onyx supports positive thinking through water vibrations.

For the full crystal properties to infuse the water, it is recommended to leave the water in the bottle for at least 10 minutes.

Always keep the fundamental source of life with you – staying well-hydrated ensures that your body and mind remain in top condition.
